

MASONIC LODGES TO ELECT SOON

Fiscal Year of Lodge Closes July 1; Odd Fellows to Have Memorial.

Annual elections of officers will be the interesting feature among the Masonic bodies of the city during the next two weeks. The fiscal year of blue lodges, royal arch chapter and council will close on the last day of June, and prior to that day officers for the 1916-17 term will have been installed.

El Paso lodge No. 139, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, which is known as one of the strongest blue lodges in the country, will hold its election on June 21. A regular communication was held by this lodge Wednesday night and work was scheduled for the month. Meetings will be held two or three evenings a week for degrees. John Temple Rice is worshipful master and George F. Morgan secretary. Installation of the officers-elect will take place on June 25.

New Lodge Growing.
Fraternity lodge No. 1111, A. F. & A. M., will have work tonight in the second degree. Next Tuesday night will be the election of officers. This lodge, constituted last January, will close the first six months of its term with 115 members and considerable degree work in sight. As soon as the furniture comes for its new hall in the Lanier building, on Stanton street, the lodge will be moved there. A. J. Carpenter, worshipful master, and W. A. Donnell, secretary, will close the terms of office and make reports to the grand lodge this month.

Royal Arch Masons.
El Paso chapter No. 157, Royal Arch Masons, and El Paso council No. 98, Royal and Select Masters, concordant orders, will hold separate elections on Wednesday night, June 14, the regular date for convocation. The chapter has 250 members in good standing. Leonard K. Gillett is the high priest and Paul Kelly secretary. In the council Charles J. Hollister is the illustrious master and Dan Kelly recorder.

The order of the red cross and the degree of knight of Malta were conferred by El Paso commandery No. 15, Knights Templar, Tuesday night. Mt. Franklin lodge of perfection of the Scottish Rite Masons will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday night. Refreshments probably will be provided. The higher bodies of the rite will meet the following Monday evening.

Shrine to Dam.
El Mada Shrine, working steadily on the organization of the pilgrimage to Lake B. M. Hall to take place June 24, when the local nobles will meet those of Albuquerque in a ceremonial session at Elephant Butte dam. Illustrious potentate Sol I. Berg is looking after the arrangements for the trip. About 300 nobles will go from here, it is expected.

Its meeting Tuesday night Terrell camp No. 12, Woodmen of the World, took in three applications, one by transfer and two for initiation. The Woodmen are going into the preparedness parade next Wednesday 50 strong, at least. W. S. Barnes is the council commander and C. C. Kiefer secretary.

Eagles to Smoke.
At the smoker being arranged by El Paso lodge No. 72, Fraternal Order of Eagles, for next Wednesday night, C. C. Bulker, worthy president, will act as toastmaster. W. J. Moran, Arthur Fischer and J. C. Perry are listed to make addresses. The smoker will be held in Eagles' hall, in the Lanier building.

I. O. O. F. Memorial.
El Paso lodge No. 234, I. O. O. F., held its semi-annual election of officers Monday evening. The following were elected: A. A. Reynolds, noble grand; W. E. Fletcher, vice grand; E. W. Bryan, recording secretary. The other officers of the lodge were elected in December, holding office for one year.

The members of this lodge, East El Paso lodge No. 78 and Western Rebekah lodge No. 191 will be the guests of Rev. Herman G. Porter and the congregation of the First Methodist church Sunday evening, June 11, at a special memorial service. The members of these lodges will meet at Houston square at 7:30 Sunday evening and march in a body to the church. The ideal club will give a picnic at Washington park Saturday afternoon and evening, June 17, to which all Odd Fellows and their families are invited. Mount Franklin encampment No. 106 will hold its regular meeting Friday evening for work in the royal purple degree.

K. of P. to March.
Knights of Pythias will march in the preparedness parade Wednesday to show that this patriotic order is for preparedness. This was decided Thursday night at the weekly meeting of the lodge. It is expected that at least 100 knights will march. The rank of esquire was conferred upon M. W. Brown. Next Thursday night a social will be held for the knights and Pythian sisters.

ATTENTION, NOBLES.

El Mada Temple will meet Friday, June 9th, 1916, at 8:00 p. m. to consider the pilgrimage to Buffalo next month. Your presence is requested. Sol I. Berg, Potentate.

Typographical Errors.
"Typographical Errors I Have Seen," was by Richard F. Burke of El Paso. He told of some of the typographical errors he had seen. He declared he did not hesitate to say that the Texas Press association is the most influential organization in the state of Texas. He called upon the members to use their great power with the restraint which they alone can exercise.
